Processing and/or delivering your order	Identity, contact information, financial information, financial and transactional data	To carry out a contract we've made with you and to exercise our legitimate interests to recover debts owed
To manage our customer relationship with you	Identity, contact information, marketing and communications preferences	To carry out a contract we've made with you, to comply with legal obligations and to exercise our legitimate interests to keep our records updated

Marketing and communications

Theatre People Ltd may send you marketing communications if you have given us your contact details and opted-in to marketing communications.

You can opt-out of these marketing communications and manage your preferences at any time.

Theatre People Ltd's obligations

As a data controller Theatre People Ltd is legally responsible for the data you provide us with. In honouring that responsibility, we pledge to uphold our commitments under GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018.

We will only ever use your data:

- in ways that are both fair and legal
- as described within this policy
- in ways that are necessary for the purposes described

In addition, Theatre People Ltd processes the personal data you submit to us or we collect as a data processor. As part of this role, Theatre People Ltd takes all necessary precautions to secure the personal data we collect, process and store.

We may occasionally use the data you provide us with for marketing, relationship management or account management activities. These activities are designed to ensure you have adequate information about other products and/or services we offer, that we have reason to believe you may be interested in. You have the right to opt-out of these activities at any time.

Third parties

Theatre People Ltd never shares your personal data with third parties unless those parties have been explicitly mentioned within our privacy statement.

Our security
